

Greetings!

We are absolutely delighted to be partnered with Natural Disasters Expo Asia which will be the ultimate destination for disaster preparation specialists and emergency response professionals to source all of the newest disaster-related products and services, maximise recovery methods and discover new ways to achieve community outreach and preparedness! We would like to offer all our members complimentary tickets to attend the show and we highly recommend that you attend!

REGISTER FOR YOUR FREE TICKET NOW!

Climate change has become a significant topic in recent years, as the UN reports there are more than an 80% increase in climate-related disasters over the last four decades. The Natural Disasters Expo is the central hub for any forward-thinking disaster risk management professional to ensure the technology and advancement is in place before any state of emergency. These invaluable insights will be delivered by some of the biggest names such as ASEAN Meteorological Service Centre, MunichRe, International Association of Emergency Management who will be discuss the solutions and insights that you need to stay prepared!

300 EXHIBITORS

LIVE MASTERCLASSES

150 SEMINARS

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

Natural Disaster Expo Asia is prepared with an incredible program that will give you access to all the tools and knowledge you will need when communities face these disasters. Together we can raise awareness of climate change and contribute to creating a safer world for people tomorrow when disaster strikes.

Everything you need to predict, prevent, mitigate, and manage from disasters will be under one roof over two unmissable days, so reserve for your FREE ticket today, because this is THE must attend event of the year!